Dear friends,

☺ We are feeling happy around here... I Peter 1:8,9 says 'Though you have not seen Him, you love Him; and even though you do not see Him now, you believe in Him and are filled with an inexpressible and glorious joy, for you are receiving the goal of your faith, the salvation of your souls.' This is reason enough to be happy, but we have many other reasons, too! ☺ Thank you so much for praying for my mom last month, it made all the difference! I feel so blessed to have you all holding us up during our times of need! Thank you so much! Please continue to pray for my mom as she is going to have a follow-up, precautionary chemo treatment. It will take about 5 months to complete the course. We are still so thankful that she only has to do this as a precaution. /Thank You, Lord! ☺

Another reason we are feeling happy around here is that John will be home in only about 2 weeks, in time for Thanksgiving! He is happy he will be home soon, too, but he is feeling very short on time in India to get all he wanted accomplished. The paperwork he needed to attend to in Delhi and Chennai took much more time than he had hoped, which squeezed the time he had planned for the other things. We are thankful, though, for the work he was able to finish. Please thank the Lord for the paperwork that was accomplished.

He has been able to meet with many of the Pastors and teach in their monthly Pastors Conferences, which is always encouraging for them all. He has also been able to do some of the preparation work for the team that will be coming in Jan. Please pray that he will be able to accomplish all that the Lord knows needs to be done before he leaves.

Thank you for praying for the team that will be going at the end of January to the 2nd week of February. They will be going to run the medical camps, do some building work and serve the people there in whatever ways they can. We are still praying about what all the Lord has in mind. Please pray for the team's preparation to go and for the preparation that needs to happen in India for their time there to be the most effective. Please also pray for me to know if the Lord wants me to go or not. John wants me to, and I want to, but we just haven't felt sure that it is what the Lord wants. We want to have His peace about it before we decide. Thank you so much for praying for all of these things! ☺

Thank you for the powerful part you play in what the Lord is doing in India. It is such a blessing!

His peace and joy,
Love, The Nanda's ☺
